an Exceptional Country House Hotel

“Then come who pine for peace and pleasure,
Away from counter, court or school,
Spend here your measure of time and treasure,
And taste the treats of Penmaenpool”.

Gerard Manley Hopkins, 1844-1889

an Exceptional Country House Hotel

Your hosts offer you a warm and personal welcome to this magnificent luxury country house hotel set in the beautiful Snowdonia National Park close to the market town of Dolgellau, where the hills of Cader Idris meet the Mawddach Estuary.

With such an abundance of fine qualities it is difficult to know where to begin: in the Main Hall, perhaps, where the warmth and elegance of a genuine country home, with its rich oak panelling and blazing log fire, reflects a more gracious age. The sumptuously furnished Morning Room has outstanding views to the Rhinog Mountains and across the Mawddach Estuary; it is perfect for relaxing with a good book, enjoying morning coffee or relishing a traditional Welsh afternoon tea.

Relax in the grand oak panelled Drawing Room, it has a truly romantic ambience. Fall into the comfy leather sofas in front of the stone arched fireplace and enjoy the peace and tranquillity. Or perhaps be entertained on the fine grand piano whilst sipping an aperitif and musing over the dinner menu and wine list.

We are sure you will be delighted with the superb food prepared by our talented, award winning chefs, of whom we are justly proud. The hotel's Head Chef and his team produce "Contemporary British Food" with an emphasis on flavour, use of local produce and simple, careful presentation. Home grown herbs, salads and vegetables from our hotel gardens along with exceptional local suppliers combine to create imaginative cuisine. Dining in the hotel restaurant promises to be one of the highlights of your stay. To complement your meal we have assembled an extensive selection of wines from around the world.

The garden room restaurant, Llygaid yr Haul, has a contemporary feel, with a stunning Welsh slate floor, oak panelling and large gothic windows. This elegant candlelit dining room has tables draped with heavy cloths and topped with fine linen, crystal and polished silver cutlery. The tables are always adorned with fresh cut flowers.

All fourteen supremely comfortable en-suite bedrooms have been designed with flair and imagination and have in common exquisite furnishings, luxurious drapes and 21st century amenities throughout including satellite TV's, CD HiFi systems, mini bars, tea & coffee making facilities, radio alarm clocks and direct dial telephones with computer access. The rooms come in all shapes and sizes, the big being huge, the smaller being warm and cosy!

This stylish hotel is perfect for chilling out, enjoying good food and wines or if you want to be more energetic there are a multitude of activities including complimentary fishing, walking, golfing, mountain biking, and pony trekking to mention a few on offer. For the culturally minded so much choice; exploring castles, sites of historic interest or visiting National Trust properties and art galleries.

We are confident that Penmaenuchaf Hall Hotel will fulfil all your wishes with a blend of dignity & style, supreme comfort and an abundance of outstanding qualities.
