Easter Holidays

With the clocks having finally gone forward giving us extended daylight hours and the first inkling of the new season ahead. It's a huge bonus for the eagerly awaited Easter holidays. Longer days mean more time to explore the countryside, discover springtime gardens, visit castles and abbeys or wander around the grounds at Penmaenuchaf Hall.

The Easter weekend is always a busy time but the tranquility at Penmaenuchaf is far from the crazy outside world and our warm and friendly hospitality makes this the perfect retreat for an Easter break. Glass of champagne on arrival, annual Easter egg hunt and a guided walk all included in your break.

The eagerly awaited Easter holidays.

Bed and breakfast rates start at £190 per couple and two or three night breaks inclusive of our a la carte dinner are from £255 or £365 per person. Why not call and speak with our reception staff on 01341 422129 to start planning your Easter holiday, we would be happy to help you. For full details see our Easter Break page.

Gold Award

Time is precious. Time off even more so. Family time. Private time. Adventure time. It all has to be squeezed in. That is why Visit Wales came up with the Gold Awards. It's an independent insight into the very best in Wales. A mystery shopper that would look for outstanding quality, comfort and hospitality, over and above a high score in the Visit Wales normal grading assessment. The result being a collection of experiences that will guarantee golden memories.

We are delighted to report that Penmaenuchaf Hall has been awarded the standard for the Gold Award for 2018. A big congratulations to all the team at the hotel.
